

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 12, 2012

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Environmental Services: 485-3230

Idle Free Jamboree to Feature Soap Box Derby Races

Join the City of Victoria and Keep Victoria Beautiful at an Idle Free Jamboree on Saturday, May 12, 2012 at Riverside Park. There will be plenty of good clean fun including soap box races, food, entertainment and a car show!

The Idle Free Jamboree Youth Soap Box races, promoting air quality, begin at 10 AM on McCright Drive, adjacent to the Rose Garden. Soap box derby teams representing schools in VISD are participating in the races. To find out if your child's school is participating please contact Environmental Services at (361) 485-3230 or email environmentalservices@victoriatx.org. The youth soapbox races and all educational activities are free.

Later that afternoon, Keep Victoria Beautiful will conduct a soap box derby for adults at 1 pm. Cost to participate in the race is $150 per team and entry fees benefit Keep Victoria Beautiful. To register for the adult races, please contact Keep Victoria Beautiful at (361) 571-0582 or email ed@keepvictoriabeautiful.org. The entire event is open to the public.